THIS MONTH'S FEATURES

May is IPY!

In honor of the recent IPY conference in Montreal, the APECS Research Activity Committee is happy to announce that the May Research Feature will focus the 2007-2008 International Polar Year. As part of the research feature, we would like to tabulate information on how the IPY influenced members of APECS – stay tuned for a short survey that you can fill out to help make this a success. ...
