THIS MONTH'S FEATURES

APECS Launches Our New Website

If you've been on apecs.is in the past few weeks (as we hope you have!), you will have noticed a few changes to our website. At first, you might think the changes are just cosmetic – new colors, fonts, feeds, and photos. But beneath the shiny surface, a lot of thought has gone into restructuring the APECS website to make it easier for newcomers to discover what APECS is about and for all you APECS members to find the resources ...

June is Anthropology!

Like last year, APECS is dedicating the month of June to Social Sciences. This year we'll give the spotlight to one of the subcategories of social sciences, Anthropology. For those in other fields: Social sciences is the umbrella term of the study of human society and of individual relationships within and to society in its broadest meaning including sociology, psychology, anthropology, economics, political science ...

Message from new APECS Director

From June 1st, I am officially becoming the new APECS Director. Joining APECS in 2008 was one of the best decisions I have ever made and it has changed my life for the better. And now I feel very excited to be a part of the team for the next years! Recent IPY Montreal conference has given us extra confidence that APECS is on successful track, and I intend to keep it that way. ...
